COVID-19 – Red Meat Profit Partnership update

An important message for facilitators and participants of the following workshops:

- Farm Business Transition and Succession
- Aspiring to Farm Business Management and Ownership

As the situation regarding COVID-19 continues to develop, RMPP is reviewing and making decisions to keep staff, facilitators, rural professionals and farmers involved in the delivery and participation of our workshops safe.

Following the latest Government and Ministry of Health advice re events, gatherings and physical distancing, we have made the decision today to suspend until further notice all workshops noted below:

Farm Business Transition and Succession workshops

Whangarei

- Workshop 1, 31 March

Lincoln

- Workshop 1, 7 April

Aspiring to Farm Business Management and Ownership workshops

- Gore, 24 March
- Masterton, 24 March
- Whangarei, 24 March
- Balclutha, 25 March
- Te Kuiti, 26 March

You will appreciate that the coronavirus situation is changing daily. We continue to remain up to date with the latest advice from Government and the Ministry of Health and will inform you of any further changes that may affect the future running of these workshops. As mentioned above, at this stage these workshops are suspended until further notice - if there is an opportunity to run these in the future either in person or virtually, we will be in touch to advise.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to call us on 027 565 7887 or email training@rmpp.co.nz

Kind regards
